@ CENTRAL GWINNETT HIGH SCHOOL

Do you have a passion for the arts?

Whether you're obsessed with dance or play an instrument, love recording or illustrate graphic novels, dream of art installations or write your own music, there's a school where you can pursue your artistic vision, explore your creativity, and learn from industry professionals.

Whatever your creative passion, you can explore it at SOTA—School of the Arts @ Central Gwinnett High School!

Information Sessions

Current 8th grade students with an interest in the arts can learn more about School of the Arts @ Central Gwinnett High School in upcoming information sessions. The virtual events are open to students from all GCPs middle schools. Both the SOTA Conservatory Program and the SOTA Fellows Program will accept students on permissive transfer. Find links to SOTA information sessions on the SOTA website.

- Thursday, Oct. 21, 6:30 p.m.
- Tuesday, Nov. 2, 6:30 p.m.

Open House and Pre-audition Workshop

If you are interested in auditioning for SOTA's Conservatory program, make sure to join us for an Open House and Pre-audition workshop. The workshop will prepare you for what to expect on the day of your audition. You can get feedback on your audition piece or portfolio and get answers to your questions. Find more information and register for the workshop on the SOTA website.

- Monday, Nov. 15, 6–7:30 p.m.

Conservatory Auditions

In-person auditions—portfolio presentations for visual arts—are required for students interested in the Conservatory. Auditions/presentations for all disciplines will be held at Central Gwinnett High School on designated days. Participants will observe social distancing and masks are required. Find audition requirements, a Conservatory application, and more on the SOTA website.
