Morning Topic...

Compass or GPS?

Stacy Frison

When do you use a Compass
vs. GPS?

GPS is great when you're traveling on familiar roads.

A Compass is for when you're traveling uncharted paths and new territory

Personal Values are the Compass that guide you when there are no roads.

What are some examples of Personal Values?

Personal Values

Adventure

Family

Kindness

Authenticity

Fun

Leadership

Community

Generosity

Love

Compassion

Gratitude

Resilience

Courage

Growth

Respect

Diversity

Health

Service

Faith

Integrity

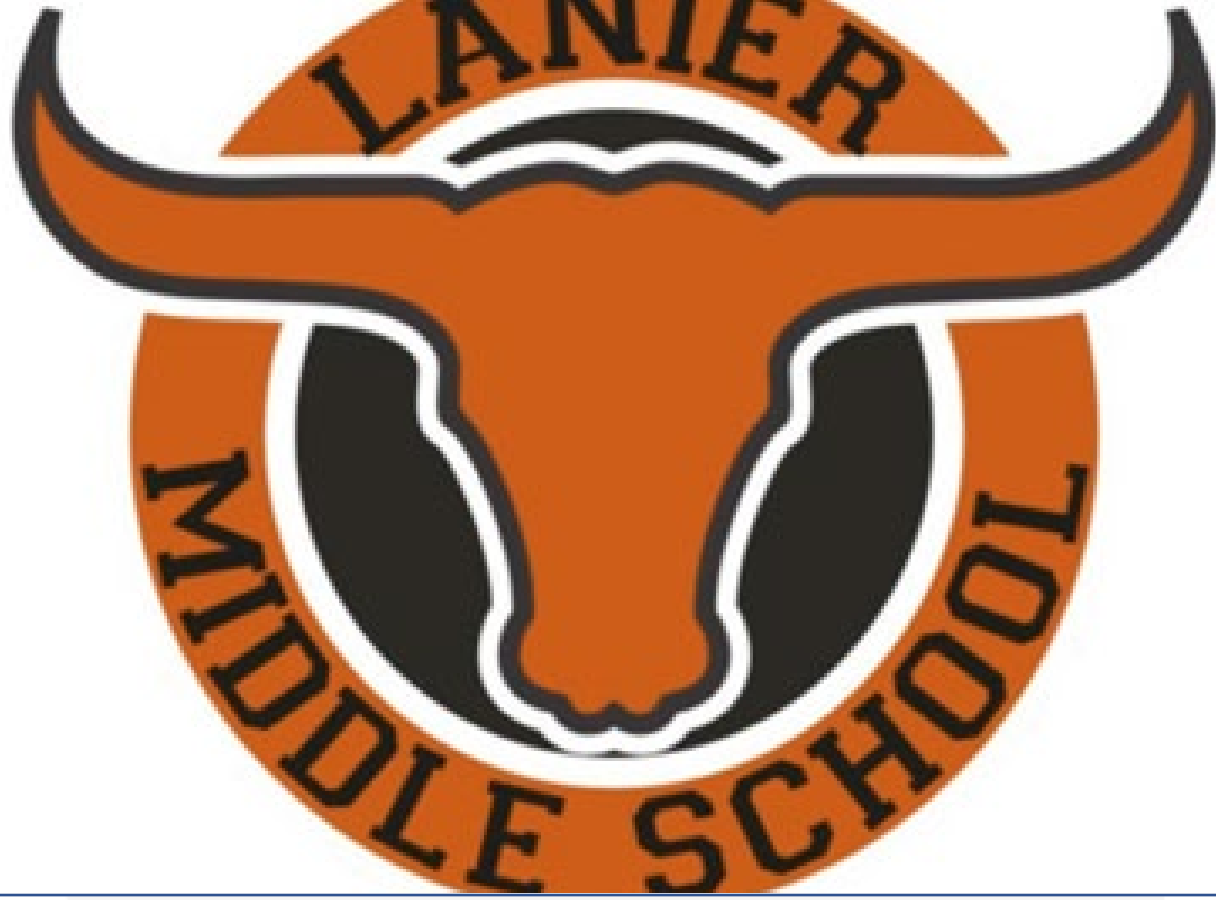

Wisdom

What Personal Values are important to you?
