Original Scholarship is:

Ideas that are completely your own.

AND/OR

Ideas that are obviously common knowledge.

AND/OR

Credit given to all original authors using proper citations.

Sloppy Scholarship is:

Using one citation at the end of a paragraph to cover multiple citations.

AND/OR

Including a works cited page without properly corresponding citations within the paper.

AND/OR

Including proper citations without a corresponding entry in the works cited page.

AND/OR

Putting quotation marks around a piece of information without giving an in-text citation.

AND/OR

Omitting or using incorrect punctuation marks in citations.

AND/OR

Inconsistent or incorrect use of recognized citation method.

AND/OR

Accidentally distorting or misinterpreting an author's original meaning.

Plagiarism is:

Copying text without using quotations marks and giving proper source information.

AND/OR

Paraphrasing or summarizing ideas without giving proper source information.

AND/OR

Selling or giving an assignment or essay to another student to submit it as his or her own work (contract cheating).

AND/OR

Having someone to create a work you intend to call your own (contract cheating).

AND/OR

Copying information from the internet and submitting it entirely or partially as your own.

AND/OR

Submitting another student's work as your own.